

Application form for a graduate scholarship of the GRÉEA

First name, last name

Institutional email

Address

Citizenship

MA, PhD

University

Program name and starting date

Name of the supervisor(s)

Research project title

Expected date for the submission of the dissertation

Status in 2020-2021

Expected funding for the year to come (name and amount)

Linguistic abilities (English/French)

(optional) Minority group status<sup>1</sup>

Other documents to provide:

- a cover letter (max. 1,000 words);
- a summary of the research project (max. 1,000 words);
- a statement about the applicant's knowledge translation activities and/or relevant community activities (max. 1,000 words, optional);
- transcripts for graduate studies (optional: certificates of maternity leave, disability, sick leave or of other exceptional situations, which might help to evaluate the transcripts, can be provided at the discretion of the candidates)
- curriculum vitae ;
- two letters of recommendation directly sent by the referees

Contact: Ely Mermans (ely.mermans@umontreal.ca)

<sup>1</sup> Women, Indigenous persons, racialized persons/visible minorities, persons with disabilities and/or persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities.